Christ calls all of us to "Love our neighbors as ourselves". Service to others should be our highest priority in life, for Jesus counsels us that "it is better to give than to receive" and also "it is in giving that we receive". That is why service is such an important part of our Religious Education program and why we place such a high emphasis on it. We hope that you have come to understand and appreciate the spirit of service, and ask that you briefly explain the nature of your service and how you are enriched by your service to others.
